Dear [Redacted]

STAT

Our courtesy copy of the "America's Builders" Ninth Annual Proceedings was received with much interest. Frankly, I did not need said copy in order to be made aware of [Redacted] outstanding reputation as a "fast moving international architectural-engineering firm" because I have met the partners and read FORTUNE Magazine! Need I say more.

This is a very fine tribute, [Redacted] and knowing your high estimate of the men in the heavy construction business, I am sure the honors received were most satisfying to you, [Redacted] On the basis of my association with [Redacted] I'm joining your America's Builders fan club. Not incidentally, the partners and wives are most photogenic.
